

The Burbank Times

3917 RIVERSIDE DRIVE, 2ND FLOOR • BURBANK 91505 (818) 841-NEWS

Burbank High School Students Accepted into an Elite Program

David Marinich, a Burbank High School Senior Drummer, and Evan Mehta, a Burbank High School Junior Pianist, are the first Burbank Unified students ever to be selected for the Los Angeles Jazz Society's Jazz Camp, Jazz Mentorship Program.

The mentoring program provides an opportunity for a select few music students in the entire Los Angeles County public school system to receive eight weeks of free training in advanced music techniques from top professional musicians, both individually and in group workshops. The program celebrates with performances and a professional recording session.

Richard Craig, retired a professional music instructor, Musical Director, says he is especially proud of these hardworking musicians, who have been his students in Marching Band, Concert Band, Jazz Band, and AP Music Theory.

Fiesta Charity Horse Show

The Fiesta Charity Horse Show and Spectacular, produced by the non-profit Fiesta of the South Valley, will re-multi-breed horse show competition and a charity benefit on Saturday with music, food, disease, vendors, and more.

Macias Appointed Principal at Luther

At the March 13th Board of Education meeting, Dr. Oscar Macias, Assistant Principal of Instruction at John Burroughs High School, was appointed Principal of Luther Burbank Middle School. Oscar will continue working in both roles during the transition.

Oscar Macias

Oscar earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology/Criminology from Califor-

Burbank's Own Edwards Twins "Twintastic"—Coming to NoHo

Burbank's only identical twins that look and sound like "1997" with an up-ticking of elements.

America's top identical twin celebrity illusionists, The Edwards Twins, are bringing their one of a kind entertainment, world renowned show, Twintastic, to the Los Angeles area from March 19-29 for ten performances at the El Portal Theatre. The performances are slated for 8:00 p.m. Thursdays - Saturdays and Saturdays and Sundays at 1:00 p.m.

Born and raised in Burbank, California, brothers Anthony and Eddie Edwards have come with their realistic vocal and visual portrayal of some of the world's best-loved celebrities, from Barbra Streisand, Neil Diamond, Elton John, and Cher to Pavarotti, Stevie Wonder and Lady Gaga.

These master illusionists have also opened for some of the most popular artists, including Michael Jackson, Celine Dion, Rod Stewart and U2, and they have received rave reviews from People Magazine "Flawless vocals and visuals."